

Hollis F. Price Library

Pre-Test Semester: Fall 2012

Name _____ Date _____ Instructor _____

As part of freshman seminar, you will be visiting the Hollis F. Price Library for an orientation that will introduce you to the library collections and services. To better assist you in meeting your needs, please complete this following pre-test.

Directions: Circle the correct answer

1. The Hollis F. Price Library uses the following classification system.
 - Dewey Decimal
 - Library of Congress
 - Johnson APA

2. How do you access the Hollis F. Price library's webpage?
 - www.library.loc.edu/
 - www.hollispricelibrary.com/
 - www.loc.edu/academic-affairs/library/

3. To find online journal articles about your research topic, where should you look first?
 - Google
 - Online database
 - Online library catalog

4. What is the best way to find books about gardening in the online public access catalog
 - Do a keyword search
 - Do an author search
 - Do a title search
 - Do a subject search

5. Once you have found a title using the online public access catalog, what is the one piece of information you need to write down in order to find the book on the shelf?
 - The call number
 - The title
 - The author
 - The year the book was published

6. Which of the following cannot be checked out?
 - Books in the general collection
 - Laptops
 - Periodicals (Magazines, Journals and Newspapers)
 - VHSs

7. Have you visited the library this semester? Why/Why not?
 - Yes I have visited the library to _____

- No I have not visited the library because _____