LEADERSHIP. OPPORTUNITY. CHANGE.

June 11, 2018 – Former LeMoyne-Owen College student Krishun Lovelace was honored with a proclamation from the Tennessee House of Representatives Monday morning for his numerous accomplishments while an LOC student.

State Rep. Johnnie Turner, a LeMoyne alumna, and state Rep. Dwayne Thompson presented the document to Lovelace at LOC's Brownlee Hall. LOC President Andrea Lewis Miller and other faculty and staff were on hand to witness the event.

The proclamation, among other things, salutes Lovelace for being elected Mr. LeMoyne-Owen College and National Mr. HBCU.

Lovelace graduated cum laude in May with a Bachelor of Arts degree in interdisciplinary studies.
