LeMoyne-Owen College Students and Community Volunteers to Pay Tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Legacy With a Community Cleanup

- WHO: LeMoyne-Owen College Community Partnership (LOCCP), Memphis City Beautiful, Clean Memphis, and Volunteer Mid-South.
- WHAT: 8th Annual Martin Luther King Service Day and Clean-up
- WHEN: Monday, Jan. 16, 2017, 9:00 a.m. - noon.
- WHERE: The event kicks off at the Alma C. Hanson Student Center on the LeMoyne-Owen campus, 807 Walker Ave., at 9 a.m. Cleanup at various areas surrounding the campus immediately follows.
- BACKGROUND: Everyone is invited to join the LOC community and hundreds of participants from area agencies, city and county government, and law enforcement, along with employees from local companies, to spruce up areas surrounding the LOC campus. Sign up at Janet@CleanMemphis.org. “We are grateful for our wonderful group of community servants who embody the spirit of Dr. King’s legacy of community activism,” LeMoyne-Owen Social and Behavioral Sciences Division Chair Michael Robinson said. “Involving ourselves in this clean-up gives us a perspective on what the community needs and the community a perspective on the support systems that LeMoyne-Owen College can provide,” he added.
