LeMoyne-Owen College's Memphis Alumni Chapter Hosts the 22nd Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Prayer Breakfast Jan. 21, 2013

MEMPHIS, TN (December 14, 2012) Everyone is invited to start the New Year off with reflection, prayer and a sense of purpose as LeMoyne-Owen College's Memphis Alumni Chapter pays homage to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at the 22nd Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Prayer Breakfast Monday, January 21, 2013. This tribute to Dr. King's civil rights legacy begins at 8 a.m. at the Marriot Hotel & Convention Center, 2625 Thousand Oaks Blvd. Reverend Donald L. Johnson, Senior Pastor of Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Memphis, Tennessee, will deliver the keynote address.

"Dr. King was a great man that not only championed civil rights, but also loved education and emphasized the importance of educating our children as a means to fight poverty in the African-American community," stated Jeffrey Higgs, Memphis Alumni Chapter president.

Tickets are $50 and may be purchased on the LeMoyne-Owen College campus in the Office of Institutional Advancement, 807 Walker Ave. Contact Frankie Jeffries in Alumni Relations at (901) 435-1530 for more information. Proceeds benefit LeMoyne-Owen College and its scholarship programs.
