LeMoyne-Owen College Memphis Alumni Chapter Hosts the 21st Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Prayer Breakfast Jan. 16, 2012

MEMPHIS, TN (January 9, 2012) Everyone is invited to start the New Year off with reflection, prayer and a sense of purpose as LeMoyne-Owen College Memphis Alumni Chapter pays homage to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at the 21st Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Prayer Breakfast Monday, January 16, 2012. This tribute to Dr. King's civil rights legacy begins at 8 a.m. at the Memphis Airport Hotel & Convention Center, 2240 Airport Road at Airways Blvd. Reverend Keith Norman, Senior Pastor at First Baptist Broad St., will deliver the keynote address. The STAX Academy Choir will perform.

"Dr. King was a great man that not only championed civil rights, but also loved education and emphasized the importance of educating our children as a means to fight poverty in the African-American community," stated Jeffrey Higgs, LeMoyne-Owen College Alumni Chapter president.

Tickets are $40 and may be purchased on the LeMoyne-Owen College campus in the Office of Institutional Advancement, 807 Walker Ave. Contact Frankie Jeffries in Alumni Relations at (901) 435-1530 for more information. All proceeds benefit LeMoyne-Owen College and its scholarship programs.
