Position Title: Assistant Professor in Music

Reports To: Chair/Department Head, Division of Fine Arts and Humanities

Department: Division of Fine Arts and Humanities

Classification: Full-time, Non-Tenure/Tenure track, 9-months, Benefits Eligible

POSITION OVERVIEW

The faculty member in music will teach 12 hours of course work each semester in music theory, aural theory, music history and other courses that may be related to music technology and production as well as other areas of expertise dependent on the qualifications of the applicant and needs of the department each semester. Additionally, the successful candidate will assist in the refinement of the concentration in music technology and production. In addition, he/she will also participate in general activities of the college including academic advising, participation in college related activities, and special projects related to the divisional and college goals. The general duties of the position will cover teaching, professional development, and community service.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

• Teach music courses
• Teach applied courses and accompany ensembles
• Maintain and develop the music technology laboratory including responsibility for the equipment, if applicable
• Provide academic advising to students when applicable
• Participate in the general academic/professional activities of the college
• Serve actively on at least two committees
• Participate in all divisional, major area, and faculty meetings
• Provide academically/professionally related community service
• Help to place students in appropriate internships and other community- based learning experiences when applicable
• Assist in monitoring student performance in their academic and professional progress

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

• Master’s Degree in Music with emphasis in theory and history
• Experience in music technology and production, preferred
• Full-time teaching experience at the collegiate level with preference in instrument
• Experience in program development
KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

- Excellent communication skills,
- Excellent knowledge of subject that the incumbent will teach
- Ability to work effectively with colleague faculty members
- Ability to work effectively with different constituencies
- Understanding of the goals and practices of active, experiential community-based education
- Ability to use electronic resources in developing course materials, reports, and tracking students

WORKING CONDITIONS/PHYSICAL DEMANDS

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is regularly required to sit, stand, use hands to handle, or feel to talk and to hear. The employee, frequently, is required to walk, reach with hands and arms to stoop, kneel, or crouch. The employee must occasionally lift and/or move up to 20 lbs. Specific vision abilities required by this job include close vision.

Qualified applicants should submit the following information in one (1) pdf document via email to: jobs@loc.edu. Please put the job title in the subject line

- Cover Letter and Resume/ unofficial transcript of highest educational level completed
- 3 references including contact information

Incomplete applications will not be considered. The final candidate who is extended an offer must successfully complete reference and background checks.

LeMoyne-Owen College offers an attractive benefits package, including health, vision, and dental benefits. The College pays for Life Insurance, STD/LTD, and paid time off.

LeMoyne-Owen College is an AA/EEO employer and does not discriminate against students, employees, or applicants for admission or employment on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, disability, age, status as a protected veteran, genetic information, or any other legally protected class with respect to all employment, programs and activities.

No Solicitations or Phone Calls Please