1. Who is the father of Black History?
__________________________________________________

2. She was born in Brownsville, TN and is referred to as the “Queen of Rock and Roll.”
__________________________________________________

3. What was the first all African American religious denomination in the United States?
__________________________________________________

4. She served as the 66th United States Secretary of State from 2005 – 2009 and as the 20th national security advisor from 2001 – 2005.
__________________________________________________

5. Who came before Rosa Parks in protesting the segregation of public transportation?
__________________________________________________

6. Who served as a US Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Ambassador and lead an American Law School?
__________________________________________________
7. Who extracted over 285 products from the peanut and over 118 products from the sweet potato? ____________________________

8. This American singer was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2019. She had 5 brothers who were pretty talented, too. ________________________________

9. She starred in Claudine and Carmen Jones, but she’s most famous for her role as Julia. ________________________________

10. She was the first African American woman to win the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction, which she was awarded for her novel, The Color Purple. ________________________________

11. She was the first woman to become a pilot and the first to hold an international pilot license. ________________________________

12. She made over 20 trips from the North to South as the “Conductor” of the Underground Railroad. ________________________________

13. This famous anthropologist wrote the classic novel, Their Eyes Were Watching God. ________________________________

14. She was the first Black woman to write a play that appeared on Broadway. ________________________________

15. Early in his career, he was known as the Beale Street Blues Boy. ________________________________
16. In 1936, President Franklin Roosevelt appointed her Director of the Division of Negro Affairs of the National Youth Administration and thus became the highest-ranking Black woman in government.

17. She was the first Black to sing a principal role with the Metropolitan opera.

18. She played Dorothy in The Wiz and has a daughter on the popular television series, Black-ish.

19. She was instrumental in getting Congress to pass the 1965 Voting Rights bill that protected Black voters.

20. She was an American actress, poet, playwright, screenwriter, journalist, and civil rights activist. She originated the role of “Ruth Younger” in the stage and film version of A Raisin in the Sun.

21. He was a composer and musician who referred to himself as “The Father of the Blues.”

22. She was born Eleanora Fagan, but professionally, she was known as “Lady Day.”

Be the first to email or bring answers to library@loc.edu by Thursday, February 3rd.