

Effective with the 2014-15 award year, the federal government is comparing student enrollment and financial aid history. An unusual enrollment history is defined as having received Pell Grant at multiple institutions for the past four academic years. You are required to complete the Unusual Enrollment History Form so we may determine your eligibility for future financial aid.

If the student did not receive academic credits at any of the above listed institutions, then the student must provide an explanation for failure to earn academic credit. Please refer to the time period within the academic term in which no credit was earned. If personal reasons explain the failure to earn academic credit, attach third party documentation to confirm your claim or you will be denied financial aid at LeMoyne-Owen College. Additional pages may be attached.

Examples of extenuating circumstances include:

- Death of an immediate family member (must include the relationship of family member to student, copy of death certificate)

- Documented hospitalization or illness of self, child or parent (if self, must include dates and medical records as to the student’s readiness to return to school)
- Military withdrawal (include documentation from commanding officer)
- Victim of a crime or unexpected disaster (include copy of police report, third party letters, etc.)
- Other circumstances not addressed in the above categories (include supporting documentation). Please provide an explanation below or attach additional pages:

I certify that the information reported on this form is true and correct. If requested, I agree to provide additional documentation to the Student Financial Aid Office.

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, sentenced to jail, or both.

Once our review is completed, the decision for future financial assistance is final and cannot be appealed.
